Gov. Major. More than a quarter of a million Missourians awoke Thursday morning with burned arms and calloused hands, ver knives and forks. Lamar Johnbut followed their governor back to the roads for a second day's work.

Early in the day Gov. Major, ac- prize. companied by his guest, Gov. Hodges of Kansas, and officials from other states, started on a tour of inspection. Major was highly pleased over reports of Wadnesday's work. Practically every county in the state reported enthusiastic work. Only a few localities failed to catch the spirit and they were excused on account of the drought which made the roads so hard that they could be worked with nothing less than dynamite.

The campaign to "pull Missouri out of the mud" was well organized. For weeks road overseers have been assembling equipment and outlining the work so systematically that every squad of men was put to work with-

MAN AND GIRL SHOT; SUICIDE PACT DOUBTED

Relatives of Wounded Girl Think Man Went Suddenly Insane.

NEW YORK, Aug. 21-Not believing that the girl entered into a suicide pact with Charles Rich, 19, relatives of Ruth Hamilton, 17, are watching at her bedside where she hovers between life and death as the result of two bullets Rich fired into her body Wednesday night. Rich is dead.

"We are going to end it all," pencilled in Rich's handwriting is the only clue to the tragedy. The note was found on the back porch of the home of Henri C. Morand, brother-inlaw of Miss Hamilton with whom she lived, and a search revealed the bodies of the girl and boy in the shadows of a dark street, some distance away.
